NASA DECLARATION

We, Daniel R. Bell, III, a citizen of the United States of America, residing at Westminster, California and Duoc T. Tran, a citizen of the United States of America, residing at Huntington Beach, California declare:

That I made and conceived the invention described and claimed in patent Application: Number, 10/295,380 filed in the United States of America on November 15, 2002, titled REUSABLE SURFACE INSULATION CONTAINING POLYBENZAZOLE.

That we made and conceived this invention while employed by The Boeing Company. That the invention is related to the work we are employed to perform and was made within the scope of our employment duties; that the invention was made during working hours and with the use of the facilities, equipment, materials, funds, information and services of The Boeing Company.

That to the best of our knowledge and belief the invention was not made (conceived or first actually reduced to practice) under, nor is there any relationship of the invention to, the performance of any work under any contract of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration or any other United States Government agency.

The undersigned inventors declare further that all statements herein of their own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

Inventor's Signature:
Daniel R. Bell, III
